

NNV Match Up

Draw a line connecting the Noble Virtue to it's definition.

Perserverence

This is a word that means the same as being brave.

Courage

This is being factual, not lying or giving false statements or impressions.

Truth

When someone has this virtue they are known by others as a good person who behaves correctly in different situations and always tries to do what is right.

Hospitality

This means being loyal to somebody or something.

Self Reliance

When we have this virtue it means that we are able to behave in a particular way and follow rules.

Discipline

This means making someone welcome, particularly in your home.

Industriousness

This means looking after yourself and not expecting others to do things for you that you can do yourself.

Honor/Honour

This means putting hard work and effort into something that you are trying to do.

Fidelity

This means to keep trying until we can accomplish whatever we are trying for.